

I greatly benefit from listening to traffic and weather channels on XM satellite radio. That should not be taken away from me or any other listener. I feel strongly that this is part of my first amendment rights. Please don't allow the deep pockets of tradiitonal broadcast radio to stifle the technological progress of local and worldwide communication.